

WELCOME TO ELR 2021 WHATSAPP CHAT GROUP!
from Dr. Nancy Sutton Pierce

Hello sexy people,

I am stopping by this morning to offer up some clarifications so we can move forward with grace and excitement. Let's start with the mission of ELR and who our guests are:

This is the first couple of paragraphs on my website event description (Highly recommended reading)

(See full event description page-https://drnsp.com/retreats/exotic-lifestyle-retreat-june-2021/)

"Join Dr. Nancy Sutton Pierce and her Entertainment Director, Cameo Kyle, in Jamaica for a week-long retreat for SINGLE WOMEN & THOSE WHO ADORE THEM. Couples and single men are certainly welcomed, and our focus is on the WOMEN and offering them a week to feel like a goddess, to learn, grow, enjoy, be pampered, catered to, and feel appreciated.

Single men are welcomed if they are interested in helping make this week all about the women too. (Please Read)*

Exotic Lifestyle Retreat is not a swinger's event, and yet swingers are certainly welcomed. People in the lifestyle are most certainly welcomed, however this is really about female empowerment and offering a sexy setting where open mindedness, nonjudgement and safety are the norm."*

I hope this clears up any misunderstandings thus far.

"Know Your Audience" is something I had to learn the hard way going to Hedonism in the beginning. I assumed everyone there, including the staff, were into some aspect of the all-encompassing "Sexy Lifestyle". Well, I was very wrong.

Fact: In any given week at Hedonism, 50% of the guests do not consider themselves in the lifestyle. January is the exception as this is Lifestyle Month.

Other important info about Hedonism; The Staff are OFF LIMITS to guests for sexual play, and they are rarely into any form of the lifestyle in their personal lives. (They get fired on the spot for accepting sex or money).

More Groovy Data about ELR

Who is coming to ELR 2021? Some Interesting data for you.

Solo Men - 11

Couples - 10 Repeaters To ELR: 41 of 53

This group chat's intention:

To get to know more about each other (ask questions VS make assumptions). So we arrive on June 26th with some familiarity and not as total strangers.

We are all beyond excited to share this week with old and new friends. For the couples, I have no doubt you bring a lot of sexy energy to the week; and I also know that being a part of ELR and attending the group seminars and sensual experiences will add a new erotic and fulfilling dimension to your free-spirited lifestyle and unique relationship design. ELR fully embraces each and every lifestyle, yet we don't believe one lifestyle is better than another. What is most important is respect for each other and celebrate the fact that ELR and Hedonism are women-centric.

My mission is to ensure we, the women, get this one-week to turn things upside down where women rule, women make the invitations, women make the first move and where women feel 100% safe to freely express their desires. (Enthusiastic Consent to touch or do anything with anyone else is still required under all circumstances regardless of gender) Please don't assume the women are just coming to ELR to be fucked. While there might be some who want to explore their sexuality - they want to do this on their own terms in their own time, feeling fully empowered to their YES as well as their NO. HIGHLY RECOMMENDED regardless of your lifestyle pedigree!

My classes on Consent, Non-Verbal Communication, and Hedo Life 101, the Erotic Sensorium, etc are not to be missed. I have had the privilege of teaching at Lifestyle and Swinger events all over the world - and the most seasoned life styler always learns something new in my classes.

Sharing personal photos within the group chat: If you have the desire to share private pics or sexual videos simply state you love to share those and if anyone is interested, they can direct message you for more. Posting sexy, teasing, fun pics of your sexy self so we can see your face is great!

Please don't post or send privately any nude or sex videos without prior consent of everyone who will view them. This is simple common courtesy, good manners, and lifestyle consent basics.

Hedonism has something for everyone. I have been creating and running events at Hedo for 15 years. The one thing I can assure you is, if you take some time to get to know people in this group, are patient and fun loving, understand or wish to learn what it truly means for a woman to feel safe to fully express her sexuality, then you will have the time your life and make a lot of your new best friends for life.

If you are still reading (yes, I'm known for having a lot to say), congrats! I can't wait to meet you very soon in Jamaica for a week we will never forget!

With my greatest respect and heartfelt devotion to your finest ELR experience.

Dr. Nan

PS: I apologize this wasn't the first post - it will be in the future.
