Theme - "Making Consent Even Hotter!"

Hello Sexy ELR Tribal Member,

Cameo and I are celebrating our 7th year creating an exotic/erotic experience for our guests in the sexiest place on earth, Hedonism resort in Negril, Jamaica. We work year around planning, getting everything ready for this to be the best vacation of your life. We also cherish spending this week with you.

Exotic Lifestyle Retreat is designed to honor women; single or coupled. We welcome single men to join as well. The men who attend are generally quite evolved and/or interested in learning more about supporting empowered women while enjoying a very sexy environment. We build special playshops into the itinerary for couples to deepen their bond, and couples & singles who want to mingle. Everyone learns more about enjoying the sexy, sultry Hedonism/Caribbean cultural buffet!

Taking Care of Business.

Due to the new management changing our agreement this year, we have been left with no choice but to charge an additional fee for the body of the retreat. In years past, we were comp'd many rooms for our team (never our flights) so our out-of-pocket expense was much less helping us keep costs low. This year, we are paying full fare in order to provide this retreat. The value of our time, efforts & expertise is determined by you. With your support, we can continue to provide the Exotic Lifestyle Retreats at Hedonism each year. Retreat Package

Everyone IS welcome, yet the retreat is not a designated "swinger" focused event. We do have many variations of "the lifestyle" in our group - and our group is very diverse with age, relationship configuration, race, and gender. It's a beautiful dream to see how much love this group creates.

This is a wonderful opportunity to "vote with your dollars".

You can learn from others who have attended what they experienced at prior retreats here
